WORKSHOPS

“Embody Your Voice”

How to find an easy voice and physicality, taught by Rouge's vocalist. Using a creative mix of standard bel canto, free ranging sounds and physical experiences, Janet quickly gives students a satisfying sense of their true voices.

"A real saturated, confident, passionate approach that had immediate impact on everyone . . . probably one of the best workshops that we have had in five years!"

Steffon Moody,
Chameleon Performance

"Again, THANKS for an awesome workshop. Great teaching! Everyone felt like you were the first to truly deserve the money it pays!"

Kate Smith,
Big Apple Circus Clown Care Team

“Arranging for Small Ensembles”

Framing tunes, structured improvisation, and exploring your role.

“Individual Instrument Workshops in World Music Styles”

With a knowledge of ethnic styles from France, Hungary, Mexico, Venezuela, Scandinavia, and Greece, Rouge's musicians have taught all over the world including the Colorado Roots Music Camp, Puget Sound Guitar Workshop, and Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, Finland.

“French Social Dancing”

From traditional bourrées came a waltz style which allows one to move easily to the fast musette waltzes. Simple moves to get you up and dancing!
